Advantages and benefits of leasing Printable version

Leasing is a legal basis to reduce your tax base

You don't pay VAT on leasing payments, because they are fully included in the cost and reduce the income tax base.

In customs clearance of technological equipment imported for leasing purposes, it shall be exempt from payment of customs duties and VAT.

Leasing is a planned management of your financial flows

You can exactly calculate the budget of your business for the term of the lease agreement and manage the cash flows on the basis of payments schedule under the lease agreement, which provides for equal monthly (quarterly) payments.

Leasing is a real opportunity to cooperate with world-class equipment suppliers

You supply equipment from leading world and domestic producers without diverting your working capital.

Leased equipment not only pays for itself, but also can significantly increase your income.

The Uzbek Leasing International JSC does not limit your choice of services in any bank.
